Land Acknowledgement:

"At the University of MD, we believe it is important to create dialogue to honor those that have been historically and systemically disenfranchised. So, we acknowledge the truth that is often buried: At the University of Maryland, we are on the ancestral lands of the Piscataway People, who were among the first in the Western Hemisphere. We are on indigenous land that was stolen from the Piscataway People by European colonists. We pay respects to Piscataway elders and ancestors. Across the state, we honor the original custodians of this land, including the Accomack, and Pocomoke on the Eastern Shore all the way to the Massawomeck in Western Maryland. Please take a moment to consider the many legacies of violence, displacement, migration, and settlement that bring us together here today."

We also invite people to identify the original custodians of your land and offer acknowledgement in chat. <https://native-land.ca/>
